

Model Visegrad plus Germany is a MUN-type simulation organized as a summer school by the Association for International Affairs (AMO). It will simulate negotiations of the Visegrad Group and Germany. High school and university students from these countries will participate in a week-long, thoroughly prepared educational programme which will be held in Prague between 23 – 29 July 2017.

Intensive four-day preparatory workshops will be followed by simulated negotiations. The programme will constitute of a series of interesting lectures, interactive seminars, and negotiation activities await the participants. Several social events will also be a part of the experience.

Model Visegrad plus Germany will offer a unique opportunity to meet an inspiring group of young people, try to find solution to current challenges, overcome the fear of public speaking, and practice their English skills.
