

MODEL V4+ APPLICATION PROCESS REQUIREMENTS

Dear applicants,

we are pleased by your interest in applying for the Model V4+ at Prague Student Summit. In this document you might find all the necessary information about the application process to the Model V4+ including the requirements and evaluation guidelines for your application documents.

Should there be any further questions, do not hesitate to contact the organizers at v4@amo.cz.

1) Application Deadline

Deadline for the application is March 20th, 2016. Make sure you will complete the whole process until this date through the online application system of the Prague Student Summit – www.isbadge.cz.

2) Formal Requirements

- a) In order to be eligible for the selection, each applicant has to be a citizen of one of the participating countries (the Czech Republic, Slovakia, Poland, Hungary, Germany or Austria).
- b) Each applicant has to be a student of Bachelor or Master University program.
- c) The application has to be duly filled in including all contact details, submitting the essay and letter of motivation.
- d) Application including all the supporting documents must be submitted in English language only.

3) Particular Parts of the Application

The application consists of two parts which will be anonymized and then evaluated by the organizers of Model V4+. These are the opinion essay and letter of motivation.

a) Essay (max. 30 points)

Each applicant is supposed to submit a brief opinion essay of maximum 3600 characters (including spaces). Sources are mandatory and shall be stated at the separated box, therefore sources used for the essay are not counted into the total limit of characters. Topic of the essay is chosen by the organizers and stated below. As number of characters is relatively limited, please be accurate, brief and clear in your message. It is highly recommended to double check your writing before the submission. This could save you some points.

The organizers will rate the essays based on following criteria:

I) Meeting the Instructions

Our objective is not to make you create or invent any professional outputs, your goal should be to study the subject in order to determine your own personal judgment about the particular matter and try to substantiate it.

II) Factual Accuracy

All the essays must be elaborated according to the real contemporary situation and supported by actual events or expert predictions; the facts stated in the essays are going to be verified.

III) Grammar and Stylistics

You must write in an appropriate style, use grammatically correct sentences with accurate spelling and punctuation in a style appropriate to the topic and situation.

IV) Originality and Creativity

In order to make your essay stand out, focus as well onto the uniqueness of the text within reach of fulfillment of the requirements set in the definition of the topic.

In your opinion essay please elaborate on the following topic:

“The Role of Central European Cooperation in the Face of Present Challenges”

b) Letter of Motivation (max. 10 points)

Each applicant shall submit a short motivation letter of maximum 1000 characters (including spaces). You should clearly explain why you want to attend the program, what do you expect from it and how you could contribute to the event. Long story short - why the organizers should pick you from all the applicants. Try to be original and creative but to the point!

4) Procedure in case of equality of score

If more than one application receives the same amount of points, the applicant with higher score from the essay will be given preference.

In case of impossibility of decision by previously mentioned mean, the decision will be made through draw.

5) Results

The results of the application process will be published on the webpage of Prague Student Summit by March 23rd, 2016 at latest.

We wish you the best of luck with your application!

Model V4+ organization team